A couple of other perhaps conflicting records between us.

1. In generation 2 of "Descendants of Johan Martin Nelson" number 2

My records show that marriage one of Emma was Jacob, not Louis. Jacob, born in 1867 married Emma born in 1878 is Westbrook, MN, June 21, 1894. Jacob died in 1914 in Lennox, S.Dak.

Jacob and Jacob A. Hanson are one in the same . Section 3 in that paragraph appears to be redundant.

I chose to list multiple husbands (wives) in chronological order of marriages. Thus I would list Jacob as (#1) and Louis as #2.

Jack, you did a really great job on this and I am happy to get all the information you had that was missing from mine. Also, the dates seemed to match perfectly so implies accurate data. Keep in touch.

PS. I hope you have a printer for mail coming in.

The Hanson Story

The date of the Hanson migration from Denmark is not available. In 1866 Ole Hanson and family moved from Union Grove near Racine, Wis., to Sleepy Eye, Minn. by covered wagon. The trip took four weeks.

The original spelling of the name was Hansen. The Danish spelling of names differs from the English and, in the following records, both are given where known.

Grandfather, Jacob Hanson, was a buttermaker by trade. He did teach country school some before marriage. His movements include Creamery positions at Lamberton and Windom Minn. and Madison, Colton, Irene and Lennox, S.D. He died at the age of 47 and is buried at Lennox, S.D.

The original home was in Shelland, town of Sorrow, Denmark, where they occupied a "Huseman" (about 3 acres of land)

The Nelson Story

Great-grandfather Martin Nelson came to America from Denmark with the Ulsted family. He married Marie Ulsted and they lived in Southern Minnesota until about 1904 when they moved to Battle Lake, Alberta, Canada. He was a Baptist preacher as well as farmer.

Grand-mother Hanson was the second child in this family. The oldest, Robert Nelson, was also a Baptist minister.

He and your grandmother Hanson, being married, remained in Minnesota when the family moved to Canada. Some of the younger children and their descendants are still Canadians.

The Ulsteds left Jylland, Denmark
July 10, 1874 and arrived in America

2. Emma Nelson.

My records show that marriage 1 was Jacob, not Louis. Jacob, born in 1867 married Emma born in 1878 in Westbrook, MN June 21, 1894. Jacob died in 1914 in Lemay, South Dakota

Jacob and Jacob A. Hanson are one in the same. Section (3) in that paragraph is redundant.

My records show Louis was a second marriage, not first, and was the brother of Jacob A. Hanson. Jacob fathered all of the children of Emma: Edna, Glenn, Vera, Loretta, Evelyn and Lois.
